OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 6 November 1963

1. [REDACTED] spent the better part of the day with Mr. Russell Fee, of the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, continuing the security review of the Subcommittee's transcripts of hearings on the nuclear test ban treaty. Six volumes remain to be reviewed and it is anticipated that this will be accomplished tomorrow morning.

6. [ ] Talked with [ ] of the National Security Agency concerning the [ ] case. He indicated that there has already been an informal briefing of HCUA and that the Chairman had been most constructive. Also there was considerable interest in the polygraph issue with the Committee of the view that polygraphs should be given to all military assigned to NSA. The issue is not complete yet with HCUA and there is to be a strategy session in DOD on this on 12 November. In connection with the Internal Security Subcommittee, [ ] said Dodd and his assistant, James P. Boyd, have been briefed and appear to be satisfied. However, Jay Sourwine and Sam Scott of the Staff wish further information in connection with a general review of security procedures in Government and it is now planned that General Blake and [ ] will meet with Sourwine and Scott on 12 November. I indicated the Agency's general interest in following this suggesting that we might be of some assistance. [ ] said he would be pleased to coordinate his work with us and would keep in touch.
